

AFC Grower/Developer Program

AFC Grower/Developer Program was developed in conjunction with CPC Livestock. This program helps transition calves from the stressful weaning phases of production and develops them into healthy preconditioned animals ready to go into breeding as replacements or onto the feedlot. It is proven that cattle going through this AFC Program are healthier with lower medicine cost, lower death loss, and cheaper cost per pound of gain than other feed or commodity based feeding programs.